PRACTITIONER-LED TRAINING

FOR EARLY-CAREER LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

TWO-DAY OFFICER DEVELOPMENT COURSE

The First Five: Building a Law Enforcement Career That Lasts

A two-day career planning course for officers in their first five years on the job.

PLAN YOUR CAREER

Over two days, you work through each part of your law enforcement career, from reputation, decision making, and leadership to finances, wellness, and family, and leave with your own five-year career development plan. Unlike traditional in-service training, this course focuses on the person behind the badge.

Designed for early-career law enforcement officers

1. Ethics and reputation
2. Off-duty and online conduct
3. Mentors and assignments
4. Pensions, budgets, and debt
5. Shift work and fatigue
6. Wellness and family

WHY SEND YOUR OFFICERS

Invest early
Early choices shape reputation, opportunity, and long-term success.

Develop future leaders
Leadership before rank, credibility, and a personal leadership philosophy.

Reduce avoidable risk
Officers learn to spot decisions that lead to discipline, on and off duty.

Protect readiness
Fatigue, stress, and financial strain affect judgment. Officers learn when to seek help.

Bring This Course to Your Agency
